

FRIENDS OF WHITE HORSE MOUNTAIN, THANK YOU!

Thanks to the generous contributions from over 300 individuals, foundations, non-profit organizations, and corporations, White Horse Mountain was officially protected and transferred to West Virginia's Division of Natural Resources in May 2018. The mountain is set to open this fall for hiking, hunting, bird-watching, and other outdoor recreation allowed within the site's wildlife and conservation goals.

RETURN WHITE HORSE MOUNTAIN TO THE PEOPLE!
